

Summary of 2023 AgrilInsurance Contract Changes

The following items are highlights of the changes made to the 2023 AgrilInsurance Contract.*

Please refer to the AgrilInsurance Contract for full details of the changes. This is intended as a summary only and the clauses in the AgrilInsurance Contract will govern. This information is provided as required by the AgrilInsurance Contract insofar as it is a continuing contract with changes being made from year to year.

Expansion of Contract Price Option (CPO): The CPO is now available for the majority of insurable crops (including the corresponding organic and pedigreed crops if applicable, excluding potatoes, vegetables, and forages.)

Complete List of Contract Changes for 2023

Sections that have been added: Section 28.07.

Sections that have been amended: Definition of CPO Crops, Definition of Organic Crop, Definition of Other Spring Wheat, Definition of Pedigreed Seed Crop, Section 6.01, Section 17.03, Section 37.26, [Appendix A - Section 18].

Sections that have been deleted: None.

*In some instances, the only change made to a Section is a cross-reference to another Section or Part of the AgrilInsurance Contract, a change in the numbering format or the re-ordering or changing of words and numbers, their format or a change in punctuation, without affecting the meaning or intent of that Section. In those cases, if that is the only change to the affected Section, that Section has not been referred to.

(Version française disponible)